BELMONT WILL BE REPLACED.

GOV. HIGGINS TO APPOINT A NEW RACING COMMISSION.

To Be Made Up of Republicans Not Identified With Local Racetracks-Empire City May Get a License-Killing Pulled With Mrs. Durnell's Ladsarion.

After a long delay, during which there have een many conflicting rumors, THE SUN was been many politician that Gov. Higgins, will make known the new members of the State Racing Commission in a few days, and that August Belmont, the present chairman, will not be among he number. It was not until yesterday, THE Sun's informant said, that the decision in Mr. Belmont's case was reached. According to the report as to the inside workings of the ase, it is asserted that certain Republican politicians, who have not forgotten Mr. Belont's participation in the Democratic national campaign last fall, have been bitterly opposed to his reappointment to the Racing umission by the Governor, in spite of the fact that some of the most influential men in the State have interceded in behalf of the hairman of the Jockey Club. In fact, it is stated that a powerful combination was ormed some time ago to effect the displacement of Mr. Belmont on the Commission, which, among other things, denied the application of the Empire City track, at Yonkers, or a license to race under the Percy-Gray law From what was said last night, Mr. Belmont was informed that he could be reappointed to the Racing Commission under certain conditions, which he would not agree to, and that when his refusal was filed he was notified his successor would be immediately It is understood that the new members of the Commission will all be Republicans, none of whom will be identified in any way with the conduct of tracks racing under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club. Congressman James Wadsworth, it is stated, vill probably be the new chairman in Mr. ont's place, while successors will be both John Sanford and E. D. Morgan. As soon as the new commissioners have been named, it is said, the Empire City track will renew its application for a license, and favorable action may be expected, in which event there will be a race meeting at Yonkers in August next year.

There are many wheels within heels in this new turf crisis which are causing some interesting stories. One of them is that certain Republican politicians cannot understand why the management of the turf in this State should be in the hands of well known Demo-These Republicans feel that the turf should be under their control and that in the why the management of the turi in this state should be in the hands of well known Democrats. These Republicans feel that the turf should be under their control and that in the course of time any attempt at monopoly would be broken up. Furthermore, these Republicans say that the fact that Mr. Belmont is financially interested in Belmont Park is sufficient reason why he should not be permitted to rule with absolute sway as member of the Racing Commission, which has the power to grant or refuse licenses each rear without appeal.

Mr. Belmont and others were instrumental in saving the turf, in the dark days of ten years ago, when through their influence the present aw was passed by the Legislature. Through Mr. Belmont's rule the turf has prospered to a wonderful degree. The State tax has grown from year to year until the agricultural societies have reaped a benefit that otherwise could not exist. In the management of the turf it was deemed necessary some time ago that the Racing Commission and the Jockey (lub should act in perfect harmony in all things relative to the welfare of the sport. For that reason the turf has been governed with wisdom and good business sense, with the result that all the racing associations have prospered.

Recently the Jockey Club, to further fortify the turf under the law, cut off the revenue from the bookmakers. Mr. Belmont was the prime mover in this matter, but it seems that the Republican politicians have passed this matter up in their plan to get control of the racing game. Those who heard that Mr. Belmont had been turned down yearer inclined to predict trouble of some soft. They said that if the Racing Commission should decide to Beense Empire City, there would be a revolt of some kind on the part of the Jockey Club, but as a matter of fact it is too early to say what the outcome of the present tangle will be.

There was a big killing pulled off with Ladsarion in the first race yesterday, the books paying out all of $10,000 on the colt's success. Ladsarion opened at 15 to 1, and wh

That is a stake filly in with a lot of muts, was the comment of a shrewd observer after the Voter filly had come back to the scales. "Why, Brookdale Nymph, with 119 pounds, was a false favorite a d should have been quoted at 10 to 1 instead of 4 to 5."

Brookdale Nymph carried one clubhouse commission of $5,000, while Dave Johnson, fill Porter, Josee Lewisolm, Morria Hayman, the Lichtensteins and others lost heavily on her George Wheelock was among those who backed Woodford Clay's Auvergne down from tens to sevens. Deviltree, a daughter of the famous Imp, was played by a number of smart neople. William Lakeland's Cousin Eva, by Knight of the Thistle—Gentility, ran unbacked by the Brighton Beach contingent, as she burned up a lot of money in her previous performance at Belmont Park.

There was very little heavy speculation on the Bay Ridge Handicap, as the wise men seemed to be all at sea. Sydney Paget had a fair sized bet on Cairngorm and Dave Johnson split $1,500 on Jacquin. Wheelock took Adbell and the clubhouse showed a marked preference for the winner, who really closed at 4 to 1. The clubhouse also won handsomely with Tyron in the fifth race. Jesse Lewisohn took Ed Alvey's Saulsberry. Peter Wimmer's Chrysolite, a gelding by Hastings—Christmas Tree, who had not started this year, was another hot tip, backed down to 7 to 2. There were many place bets picked up on H. P. Whitney's Comet, by Hamburg—Hypocrite.

Hypocrite.

An odd feature of the speculation on the last race was that although E. R. Thomas's Onatas, the winner, was a favorite, few of the notable players bet on him. E. E. Smathers's Action, on the other hand, carried a wealth of wise money, his owner betting $5,000, Lewisohn $3,000 and so on. Tony Aste put $500 on Hippocrates, who won in spread eagle style the other day only to meet ignominous defeat in this instance.

The Pinkertons nabbed two men outside the main gates before the races who were selling complimentary tickets. It was said that they were recently employed in the Jockey Slub's headquarters in the Windsor Arcade.

Willie Simps, the former colored jockey.

Jockey Slub's headquarters in the Windsor Arcade.

Willie Simms, the former colored jockey, had bet on four horses in the first race when somebody handed him a tip on Ladsarion. Simms pulled out a roll of bills and peeling off a lone doilar said to the tipster: "Here, go bet that for yourself!" E. E. Smathers's Swimming Girl pulled up bleeding from the mouth in the thirdrace, which prompted a wag to remark: "She stayed in the water too long, maybe!"

to remark: "She stayed in the water too long, maybe!"
Ladsarion, who was entered to be sold for $800, was run up to $2,200, by John J. McCafferty and Frank Brown, at which point Boots Durnell saved the colt with an extra $5 bid.
One of the clubhouse commissioners told a story yesterday that shows what a man's luck can be. He said that when the conductor of the train from Long Island City called for the tickets on Monday, he handed over his procram in fun, and said:
"Punch that!"
The conductor punched a hole through Sandmark's name, and the commissioner, when he got to the track, bet $20 against $600 on the coit and cashed.
Starter Cassidy suspended both Willie Davis and W. Robbins for the rest of the meeting, and Smith for three days, because of disobedience at the post.
Previous winners of the Bay Ridge Handicap were Kamara, Advance Guard, Blues and Proper. The last named holds the record for the race, 200 1-5.

YALE BASEBALL CHAMPION. Harvard Beaten in Deciding Game by a Score of 7 to 2.

NEW HAVEN, June 27.-The Eli bulldog ipped up John Harvard on Yale Field to-day in the final championship baseball battle. The scene itself was the usual one of a Yale commencement game, the effect heightened by the good day, the only fault of which was too much wind. The seats began filling at 1:30 o'clock and at 2 o'clock the first of the reunion classes arrived. The class of '98 pranced over the field and diamond, which were in perfect condition. The '98 costume com-prised white straw hats, duck trousers and striped blazers. Another class came with big Japanese umbrellas, duck hats and trousers and blue coats. This class was preceded by a yellow dog, another dog in costume reclining in a perambulator, and by a large brown pig, which got away in the seventh inning and stop ped the game for five minutes.

The class of '99 had dark blue kimonos, blue sunshades and Filipino hats. The '02 men, the sensation of the day, were clad in kilts and were headed by a band of real pipers from Caledonia. The class was 220 strong, a record breaking attendance, and formed a complete ring around the diamond. Then came '05, and they sported a fetching costume of duck hats, white and blue Norfolk suits and blue and white striped sunshades, which they twirled in line.

Then followed '95, the athletic class, with Hinkey, Butterworth, Adee and Dutch Carter, who were clad in white sallor suits with shakos for headgear. The classes of '80 and '85 were well represented, and '90 and '90 8 had white frock coats and high hats. All the classes performed their usual zigzags before the crowd of 12,000 persons, which overflowed into the football stands, and the game began. Yale won by bunching hits in the fourth and fifth innings. Harvard was unable to hit Jackson consecutively, and therein was her defeat. Both teams played ragged ball at times, but Yale's play improved after the first two innings, and Harvard was outclassed. Lush's work as coach of the Yale team was plain to every eye, and Yale at last had a team that knew how to hit. Harvard did well now and then, but the snap was not there, and in the eighth, when the whole stands arose and sang "For God, for Country and for Yale," Harvard was done.

Harvard's runs came in the first and seventh, the first one on a fumble by Kinney of Kernan's grounder, a steal of second, a sacrifice by Leonard and a nice hit over second by Stephenson. The run in the seventh was on a hit by Randall, his steal and Bradbury's hit to center.

For Yale in the fourth O'Brien singled to center and when Kinney drove a liner to the same place, Dexter let it go through his legs, O'Brien scoring and Kinney taking third. Capt. Bowman rose to the occasion and smashed a two bagger to right, scoring Kinney and putting Yale ahead. In the fifth Jackson was safe because Leonard lost his fly in the sun.

Barnes, who has played on three losing teams and who was ending his college baseball career, walked to the plate and with two strikes on him picked out a nice one of Coburn's and dr. e it over Dexter's head to the track for a first home run. Barnes is the class boy of the class of '80, which was back for reunion, and as Barnes followed Jackson over the plate the grand stand and particularly '80's section went wild.

In the sixth Yale got three more runs on Cote's base on balls, Huiskamp's pretty bunt, a wild pitch, Camp's line drive and Bradbury's low throw to the plate. Harvard put in two new men for a dying effort in the ninth, but it amounted to nothing.

new men for a dying energy in the finite, but amounted to nothing.

Jackson by his work to-day places himself high in the ranks of college pitchers.

O'Brien and Matthews both made brilliant catches and Bradbury and Camp ate up apparently safe hits. Greenough and Yale's outfield made some pretty catches. The score:

Phidias, Sidney F. and Accountant may be the factors. Three-year-olds will run in the fifth race, at a mile, with Angler, Flyback, Little Woods and Tommy Waddell having chances. CAIRNGORM AN EASY WINNER.

PAGET'S COLT CAPTURES THE BAY RIDGE HANDICAP.

Broomstick Beats Proper and Ort Wells -Keene's Early and Often, 20 to 1, Romps Home-Ladsarion, Tyron and Onatas Succeed at Sheepshead Bay.

Sydney Paget's Cairngorm, at the liberal dds of 5 to 1, was an easy winner of the Bay Ridge Handicap, one mile and a quarter, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. According to the arrangement of weights, he received two pounds by the scale from Oxford, and gave all the way from seven to twenty-one pounds to the others. Colonial Girl was made favorite at 7 to 2, but Cairngorm was well backed at the last moment, while it might be said that not a horse in the race was without support. Graziallo was run off his feet by Cairngorm in the first threequarters of a mile, Colonial Girl dropping 8 to 1, who had a pull at the weights, moved up with Woodford Clay's Outcome, 8 to 1, but in the run through the stretch Cairngorm and a half in 2:08 1-5. Jacquin finished half a length in front of Outcome, who was three lengths before Colonial Girl. Oxford, who was in much demand at 5 to 1, ran a John A. Drake's Ort Wells started for the

John A. Drake's Ort Wells started for the first time this year in the second event, at a mile, in which scale weight was carried. The King Eric colt was not ready and went to the post unbacked by his owner. S. S. Brown's Broomstick, 7 to 10 Iavorite, ran over his field with ease and came to the wire an easy winner by a length and a half in 1:40 1:5. Proper, 13 to 5, was second, with Ort Wells four lengths back. Pulsus, who had early speed, quickly backed up.

James R. Keene's Farly and Often, a fleet effly, by Voter-Cinderella, at odds of 20 to 1 made a show of her company in the third race, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs on Futurity Course, and roimped home, with five lengths to spare, in 0:59 3:5. She carried 109 nounds and was just one second behind the track record. William Lakeland's Cousin Eva, 12 to 1, ran into the place, two lengths in front of Catesby Wocdford's Last Cherry, 12 to 1, who beat E. R. Bradley's Vi O a head. H. P. Whitney's Brookdale Nymph, an odds on favorite, was anchored by her heavy impost and received a sound beating.

Ladsarion, running in the name of the wife of Boots Durnell, and backed down to 6 to 1 a moment before the big field was sent away, took the first race for maiden to drive by half a length from M. L. Hayman's Miss Point, 5 to 1. Fred Cook's Jimmy Maher, 16 to 5 was third, under a drive to beat August Belmont's Lord of the Forest, 6 to 1, by a head. The race was run in 1.08.

W. H. Snyder's Tyron, 13 to 6 favorite, won the fifth race, for maidens, at a mile, Baird actually pulling him to a walk at the wire, where he was eight lengths in front of H. P. Whitney's Comet, 4 to 1. Ed. Alvey's Saulsberry, 8 to 1, was third.

E. R. Thomas's Onatas, 13 to 5 favorite, beat E. E. Smathers's Action, 7 to 2, a length in the last race, at a mile and a furlong on the grass. It was a hot finish, in which Lyne put it over O'Ncill, who waited a trifle tool long. Action was only a head in front of Bill Daly's Sailor Boy, a 20 to 1 shot. FIFTEEN GAMES FROM BOSTON

YESTERDAY'S VICTORY GIVES THAT MANY TO NEW YORKS.

Scratch Hits Play a Part'in Home Team's Runs-Quakers Make Only Nine Runs Against Brooklyns-Reds Shut Out the Chicagos, and Pirates Take Two.

The Boston picnic has suspended operations for awhile. The New Yorks beat the Bostons again yesterday, taking all three games of the series and registering their fifteenth of Tenney. While the Brooklyns failed to score against the Philadelphias they held them down to nine runs. There is a pretty fight among the four teams following the New Yorks. The Pittsburgs beat St. Louis twice and are one point ahead of the Quakers. The Chicagos were shut out by the Cincinnatis. The results: New York, 2; Boston, 1.

Philadelphia, 9; Brooklyn, 0. Cincinnati. 6: Chicago, O. Pittsburg, 4: St. Louis, 2-first game. Pittsburg, 9; St. Louis, 4-second game.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. NEW YORK (N. L.), 2; BOSTON (N. L.), 1.

The New Yorks wriggled to the finish line ahead of the Bostons by a scant margin at the Polo Grounds yesterday in a game in fielding were the leading elements. The noticeable faculty the New Yorks have of getting a man across the plate, once he voyages to third base, served them well, for only two of them reached third base. Both of these men scored, and the two runs they brought in were sufficient to win the game. Luck played a big part in both runs, because one run came in on a scratch hit, and the other was the result of an outfielder playing too far around to the right and thus failing to get under a high fly.

Willis's good control and change of pace kept the New Yorks from doing any sub-stantial hitting, but although Wiltse's pitch-ing was not quite as finished, it was just as ing was not quite as finished, it was just as effective, in fact a shade more so, for the reason that an error let in Boston's only run, while Willis was supported without a misplay. The Bostons were venturesome on the bases and quick to take advantage of any openings, but they were unfortunate in stacking up against good plays by the New Yorks whenever they tried to acquire extra ground. One unusual phase of the game was that only twenty-seven men went to bat against Willis, each New Yorker three times, and only one home player was left on base. Six New Yorkers in all reached first base, of which number one was left, two scored and three were put out en route.

Dolan and Delehanty made hits off Wiltse in the first inning, and after annell had struck out, Dolan scored on Donlin's muff of Tenney's fly. Donlin singled in the first inning, but McGann soored on Donlin's muff of Tenney's fly. Donlin singled in the first inning, but McGann popped a fly to Willis as Donlin was stealing, and Donlin was doubled by Willis's fling to Tenney. Devlin slammed a clean three bagger to right center in the third inning with nobody out. Gibert could not help him, fouling to Moran. Wiltse swing at the ball, hit a teaser of the scratch variety just in front of the plate which neither Moran nor Willis could get to in time to accomplish anything, so that Devlin rushed home on the hit.

Dablen singled in the fifth inning, and enter hydrony and the hit. effective, in fact a shade more so, for the rea-catches and Brardbury and Camp ate Up apparently safe hits. Greenough and Yale's outfield made some pretty catches. The score:

cutting, never cracking, never gashing. A tube of paint goes with every dozen and it makes an old ball as good as new. A dozen will last a season—unless you lose them. 50c. each, $5.50

If you are a beginner or want a ball just to knock about and practice with we suggest the "Norka." It's of the solid gutta stylethe kind so popular a few years ago. Once upon a time $3.00 a doz. Now-a-days 10c. cach, $1.00
